

NJ TRANSIT NOTICE OF AN ONLINE PUBLIC MEETING FOR THE PROPOSED DEMOLITION OF THE LACKAWANNA RECORDS BUILDING

New Jersey Transit Corporation (NJ TRANSIT) proposes to demolish the vacant Lackawanna Records Building, located on the south side of Observer Highway between Washington and Hudson streets in Hoboken, New Jersey. The building is a contributing feature to the National Register of Historic Places' eligible Old Main Delaware Lackawanna and Western Railroad Historic District. NJ TRANSIT is proposing the action due to structural deterioration and resulting concerns over public safety. The New Jersey Department of Community Affairs has issued a notice to demolish the structure no later than June 30, 2020.

More information about the building, proposed demolition, and potential alternatives to preserve some or all of the structure can be found at NJ TRANSIT's website at <https://njtransitresilienceprogram.com/ongoing-resiliencyinitiatives/hoboken-terminal/>.

In accordance with the National Historic Preservation Act, NJ TRANSIT and the Federal Transit Administration (FTA) are conducting a public meeting to provide information regarding the proposed demolition and to solicit public comment and questions. In compliance with multiple Executive Orders from Governor Murphy resulting from the COVID-19 Pandemic, the public meeting* will be presented virtually in an online format.

The online public meeting will be presented via Webex and is scheduled for:

Thursday, April 16, 2020 from 5:00 PM to 6:30 PM ET.
